Adorn

by Laura Worthington

What can be more lovely than a wedding, an intimate invitation, a gift from the heart? One whose presentation uses the warm and welcoming family of typefaces,

ADORN. This ambitious undertaking by type designer Laura Worthington embraces those celebrations in life, be they small or momentous and provides fonts to enhance the beauty of what we use to communicate during these moments. With a modern and sometimes quirky twist on the staid, almost corporate look of formal invitations, this family of lettering typefaces arms designers with a breathtakingly large number of faces that work harmoniously, despite the distinctiveness of each. Even larger and more multilayered than Worthington's award-winning Charcuterie, Adorn offers seven display fonts, four script designs, monograms, ornaments, illustrations, banners, frames, and catchwords.

Weddings and gift-giving have moved into a new era, one that is more personal and heartfelt, dispensing with formalities. Even the concept of "elegance" has morphed from something rigid and perfect in its stylishness to a lifestyle that might include mismatched china, roses in a misshapen handblown glass vase, and elements of nature strewn across our stationery. An elegant wedding can be set on a hill overlooking the ocean, not from a seaside mansion, but at a spot arrived at after tromping a mile through the forest. As we say farewell to cookie-cutter weddings and templated events, Adorn helps us kiss corporate-looking stationery goodbye.

Anyone in the business of helping others celebrate life—florists, menu designers, landscapers, caterers, tailors, event planners—will find fitting fonts in the Adorn collection. DIYers and designers will enjoy Adorn, too, for use in prints and drawings, quotes, invitations for gatherings, greeting cards, baby showers, gift cards, even wine bottles.

MONOGRAMS

The jewel in the crown of this collection may be the three monogram design styles: ADORN SOLO for one letter, ADORN DUO for a pair, and ADORN TRIO for the classic three-letter monogram. Simply type in the lowercase/uppercase letters and your monogram is finished. These monograms were carefully wrought: each combination of letters is a revelation of complex crafting, with no collisions or overlaps. Despite their intricacy and detail, these are not your grandmother's monograms. They are modern and bursting with personality. Worthington sketched them in pencil, then used a fountain pen for contrast and detail before digitization. Solo is fresh and airy; Duo is more calligraphic, blossoming before your eyes; Trio is denser, with the center letter carrying a hint of art nouveau. Graphic designers will have their own uses for these; DIYers will see a takeoff point for jewelry, cards, invitations, rubber stamps—an endless source for personalizing and elevating the everyday, the special gathering, or a handmade creation.

CATCHWORDS, BANNERS, FRAMES, AND ORNAMENTS

Adorn offers four noteworthy “extra” fonts, though the creative professional will find them anything but superfluous: catchwords, banners, frames, and ornaments.

Twenty-one ADORN CATCHWORDS, all custom hand-lettered using a fountain pen calligraphic technique, provide a stunning way to display frequently used words, such as prepositions, to connect factual information or simply to bridge the gap between a lavish script and a hard-working display font.

Twenty ADORN BANNERS, each with a mirrored image left and right element, are available, with a customized center that can be expanded to encapsulate a message or heading of any width. Whether the design requires something sophisticated, flowery, or hand-drawn in appearance, or a structure that whispers in the background so the message itself is the star, Adorn Banners is marked by the same versatility as the rest of the collection.

ADORN FRAMES is a highly customizable set of elements offering a multitude of approaches to creating frames of any width, height, and style. Use it for corner elements, borders, or to make an actual frame. Adorn Frames features twenty corner elements and a set of nine top, bottom, and side pieces, along with a detailed description in the User's Guide on how to construct the frames. Sides pieces include scalloped edges and other options with personality, along with classic straight edges to form rectangles and squares.

In keeping with the spirit of the collection, ADORN ORNAMENTS gift the designer with one hundred thirty-eight unique ornamental illustrations. From works inspired by nature, to stunning wreaths, embellishments, rules, and iconic wedding symbols, Adorn Ornaments are meant to accompany the scripts, rather than restricting them to a theme. They dance from whimsical to modern to vintage looks, yet stay safely within the range of the spectrum that is appropriate for the style of the scripts.

SCRIPT TYPEFACES

Adorn's script typefaces, using modern lettering with a cursive impression, are Coronet, Pomander, Garland, and Bouquet. Their common origins—the fountain pen and a singular design aesthetic—give them a cohesive look, one that carries the warmth of the human hand. They are strongly connected to what is personal, imperfect, and authentic, fulfilling today's yearning for a sense of the craftsperson behind what we use.

ADORN CORONET'S script face exemplifies the Adorn spirit of both modernizing and personalizing typefaces. It's crisp, angular, and straightforward; it adds a snappy yet subtle edginess, even a slight sense of masculinity, to a design. Less embellished, loose, and flowy and more condensed than many scripts, including the other Adorn fonts, Adorn Coronet is even a bit closer to handwriting. With 268 swashes and alternates.

The script face, ADORN POMANDER, is a whimsical butterfly of a font: light and airy. We see the essence of those times when love is new, when our minds take flight with daydreams, and our days are bright and giddy. The uppercase letters, especially, break the rules of traditional classic calligraphy. With 390 swashes and alternates.

ADORN GARLAND is a script face that runs along a different, and somewhat “vintage” direction. Beautiful as it is, it works as more of a textural element than a headliner, a supporting actor rather than the leading role—though designers can make much of it on its own if they choose. It's not the bold statement; it's the subheading, the afterword, the reminder: “Wedding reception to follow.” With its slow, and gently deliberate style, and long entry and exit swashes, it can function as a long string, rule, or dividing line. Rather than deriving its strength from a heavy skeleton or structure, it uses its sense of contrast, its light touch upon the page, and its elongation to provide a visual break. With 234 swashes and alternates.

At the other end of the spectrum is the naiveté and giddiness of ADORN BOUQUET. If Adorn Engraved is the wedding vow, Adorn Bouquet is the daydreamy doodles in the corner of the wedding to do list: it's the bachelorette party, or the baby shower. It wants to be "fancy," but its exuberance bursts through, spilling curlicues across the page. Adorn Bouquet is intentionally irregular, created with a practiced hand to communicate joy—uncontrolled and informal: the champagne bubbles, the tipsy speeches, the heartfelt poetry. There's nothing static about this font: The letters bounce along the baseline, with little tilts all askew, small and large counters, and exit swashes that bring some letters as close as two lovers or pull them as far apart as the sweep of an endless train on a bridal gown. With 240 swashes and alternates.

ADORN SANS DISPLAY FONTS

SANS CONDENSED

Of all the fonts in the Adorn Collection, Sans Condensed may be the most easily identified as bucking the template-derived wedding trend, given its modernity and informality. Created for weddings, gatherings, and pretty handmade items, it would be equally at home as a branding element of a startup or titling in movie credits. Brimming with whimsy and the eccentricities of the human touch, Condensed Sans also has contextual alternates with ambicase letters—a distinctive feature not usually found in display fonts.

SANS EXPANDED

Like its sister font, Sans Expanded is a display font with warmth and hand wrought charm that works as an elegant replacement for formal type. Ideal for tasks such as making addresses, cards, and gift tags look handwritten, Sans Expanded's potential in the milieu of love and friendship is unlimited. But see it, too, as signage for a summer fruit stand or labels for the little shop around the corner. In contrast to Sans Condensed, the roughness was exaggerated so that its characteristics, when compressed, remain intact. Use Sans Expanded in a very small font size, loosely tracked, and its personality sings.

ADORN SERIF DISPLAY FONTS

Adorn Serifs add weight to hold the scripts in check, just as the wedding ceremony is not merely the script's rose petals and tinkling glasses and kisses, but the serif's solemn vows and rings, as well. Adorn Copperplate, Engraved, and Serif include small caps to afford more variety in word shapes, making even these display fonts more readable in special settings.

Adorn's serif typefaces—Copperplate, Engraved, Serif, and Slab Serif—are more closely related to the highly defined models we're accustomed to seeing in classic fonts. A slab is a slab: a copperplate is still a copperplate. Yet, Adorn's serif display fonts break free from the slick and overly polished stock. Leaning toward a handmade authenticity, they were originally drawn by hand, and Worthington accentuates their irregularities and organic look in her design choices.

ADORN COPPERPLATE has the sturdiness of the classic copperplates, and continues their rich traditional sense of practicality and familiarity—yet with a more modern take. Trendy on wedding invitations, they are all too often heavy-handed. Adorn Copperplate is pretty and structural at once, with tiny surprises poking out: a delicate leg here, a slim stroke there.

ADORN ENGRAVED and ADORN ENGRAVED EXPANDED are strongly reminiscent of formal invitations popular in the past. Still, the sweet tail of the Q and the irregular qualities of the lines bring it into the twenty-first century. Adorn Engraved Expanded, especially, accentuates the decorative look of the engraved font: the incisions within the stems and serifs allow the designer to use color to enliven them.

ADORN SLAB SERIF is available in Regular and Bold weights. Though these display fonts can also be used for body text, their uppercase mode shines, adding texture and style to a message. Adorn Slab Serifs are unique in the Adorn collection in that they are all mono-weights. They are perhaps more masculine in style than many of the other typefaces, with a touch of “retro,”—an historic reference with a contemporary spin. The option to use both upper and lower cases also affords a practicality. Adorn Slab Serifs work beautifully when paired with the pizzazz of Adorn's cursive scripts.

ADORN ROMAN

ADORN ROMAN is both a display and text typeface marked by its traditional calligraphic hand. Technically it is a humanist sans, with tapering stems and high contrast in its thicks and thins. It was created with a chisel-edged calligraphy pen, and even digitized it has the look of what a designer might create with a calligraphic tool. With more texture and character than you'd typically find in body text, it brings a softer, warmer look for small groupings of words. For weddings, this might be the description of the venue, or the directions to the reception. The lowercase adds a practicality to the collection with its ability to convey information without straining the eye.

Adorn Coronet

Adorn Coronet's script face exemplifies the Adorn spirit of both modernizing and personalizing typefaces. It's crisp, angular, and straightforward; it adds a snappy yet subtle edginess, even a slight sense of masculinity, to a design. With 268 swashes and alternates.

Adorn Bouquet

Adorn Bouquet is the daydreamy doodles in the corner of the wedding to do list; it's the bachelorette party, or the baby shower. It wants to be "fancy," but its exuberance bursts through, spilling curlicues across the page. Adorn Bouquet is intentionally irregular, created with a practiced hand to communicate joy—uncontrolled and informal: the champagne bubbles, the tipsy speeches, the heartfelt poetry. There's nothing static about this font: The letters bounce along the baseline, with little tilts all askew, small and large counters, and exit swashes that bring some letters as close as two lovers or pull them as far apart as the sweep of an endless train on a bridal gown. With 240 swashes and alternates.

ADORN SANS CONDENSED

Of all the fonts in the Adorn Collection, Sans Condensed may be the most easily identified as bucking the template-derived wedding trend, given its modernity and informality. Created for weddings, gatherings, and pretty handmade items, it would be equally at home as a branding element of a startup or titling in movie credits. Brimming with whimsy and the eccentricities of the human touch, Condensed Sans also has contextual alternates with ambicase letters—a distinctive feature not usually found in display fonts.

ADORN SANS EXPANDED

Sans Expanded is a display font with warmth and hand wrought charm that works as an elegant replacement for formal type. Ideal for tasks such as making addresses, cards, and gift tags look handwritten, Sans Expanded's potential in the milieu of love and friendship is unlimited. But see it, too, as signage for a summer fruit stand or labels for the little shop around the corner. In contrast to Sans Condensed, the roughness was exaggerated so that its characteristics, when compressed, remain intact. Use Sans Expanded in a very small font, loosely tracked, and its personality sings.

ADORN COPPERPLATE

Adorn Copperplate has the sturdiness of the classic copperplates, and continues their rich traditional sense of practicality and familiarity—yet with a more modern take. Trendy on wedding invitations, they are all too often heavy-handed. Adorn Copperplate is pretty and structural at once, with tiny surprises poking out: a delicate leg here, a slim stroke there.

ADORN ENGRAVED REGULAR

Adorn Engraved is strongly reminiscent of formal invitations popular in the past. Still, the sweet tail of the Q and the irregular qualities of the lines bring it into the twenty-first century and accentuates the decorative look of the engraved font; the incisions within the stems and serifs allow the designer to use color to enliven them.

Adorn Slab Serif

REGULAR

Adorn Slab Serif is available in Regular and Bold weights. Though these display fonts can also be used for body text, their uppercase mode shines, adding texture and style to a message. Adorn Slab Serifs are unique in the Adorn collection in that they are all mono-weights. They are perhaps more masculine in style than many of the other typefaces, with a touch of “retro,”—an historic reference with a contemporary spin. The option to use both upper and lower cases also affords a practicality.

Adorn Roman

Adorn Roman is both a display and text typeface marked by its traditional calligraphic hand. Technically it is a humanist sans, with tapering stems and high contrast in its thicks and thins. It was created with a chisel-edged calligraphy pen, and even digitized it has the look of what a designer might create with a calligraphic tool. With more texture and character than you'd typically find in body text, it brings a softer, warmer look for small groupings of words. The lowercase adds a practicality to the collection with its ability to convey information without straining the eye.

Adorn Solo

Adorn Solo is a fresh and airy monogram font. Simply type in a lowercase letter and your monogram is finished! These monograms were carefully wrought: each combination of letters is a revelation of complex crafting, with no collisions or overlaps. Despite their intricacy and detail, these are not your grandmother's monograms. They are modern and bursting with personality. Worthington sketched them in pencil, then used a fountain pen for contrast and detail before digitization. Graphic designers will have their own uses for these; DIYers will see a takeoff point for jewelry, cards, invitations, rubber stamps—an endless source for personalizing and elevating the everyday, the special gathering, or a handmade creation. Up to 250 tangible products may be made for personal or commercial use with a one-user license.

Adorn Trio

Adorn Trio is a monogram font, dense and rich with detail, the center letter carrying a hint of art nouveau. Simply type in the lowercase letters and your monogram is finished! ## Adorn Trio Monograms Instructions Adorn Duo Monograms are programmed to work automatically through the ligature feature which is activated by default in most applications and web browsers. If the monogram isn't displaying correctly after typing in your three letters, check to be sure that the ligature feature is on. If you cannot find how to activate this feature or it is not available, you will need to set the monogram by hand.

For the left letter, simply type in a lowercase letter for the left portion of the monogram, followed by an uppercase letter for the middle portion of the monogram. For the right portion of the monogram, the glyphs are set as alternate letterforms.

If you have Adobe Illustrator or InDesign, you may find these in the glyphs panel, under TYPE in the menu bar of the application. If you do not have Illustrator or InDesign, please refer to the guide on accessing alternates, available on the FAQs page of my website at: <http://LauraWorthingtontype.com/faqs/>

Twenty Adorn Banners, each with a mirrored image left and right element, are available, with a customized center that can be expanded to encapsulate a message or heading of any width. Whether the design requires something sophisticated, flowery, or hand-drawn in appearance, or a structure that whispers in the background so the message itself is the star, Adorn Banners are marked by the same versatility as the rest of the collection.

Create your own custom borders using one of two easy methods!

TIP:

You may adjust the height of the frame by decreasing leading, and the width of the frame by decreasing kerning.

Setting the Stage

- Create a new layer for your border. If you are designing in Illustrator, open the character panel and uncheck fractional widths from the dropdown menu.
- Create a new text frame the size of the border that you want to create (InDesign, Illustrator) or click anywhere to start a text frame (Illustrator).
- Click in the text frame and choose Adorn Frames from the font drop-down menu. Note: Adorn Frames may appear as a set of borders rather than the font name in the font dropdown menu.

Method 1

Using the glyph panel to create borders

2. Highlight the border pieces and adjust the font size until it has the thickness you want, then adjust the leading to be the same size as the font. E.g., if your font is 48 pt, your leading should be 48 pt.
3. Place your cursor between the top left and right corner pieces and insert a horizontal piece from the glyph menu. Do the same between the left and right bottom corners. Now, place your cursor on the right side of the top right corner and hit the Enter key. Select a vertical piece from the glyph menu to insert, then add vertical pieces to the right side of the border, adding spaces as necessary. Continue adding vertical and horizontal pieces until the border is the width and height that you want. When you have your border the way you like, lock the layer and create a new layer for the rest of your design.

Method 2

Using the Keyboard and OpenType to create borders

*Troubleshooting tip for InDesign and Illustrator users:

If the borders aren't lining up properly, uncheck "fractional widths" in the Character panel.

Locate the border corners that you want to use. From the Character panel (InDesign), click on the dropdown menu, select OpenType, then select Default Figure Style. Or, simply open the OpenType panel (Illustrator).

1. Type the letters/numbers/symbols for the top left and right border corners, hit Enter and type the letters/numbers/symbols for the bottom left and right corners. (E.g., AB [enter key] CD)
2. Highlight the border pieces and adjust the font size until it has the thickness you want, then adjust the leading to the same size as the font. E.g., if your font is 48 pt, your leading should be 48 pt. Note: in some programs, such as Microsoft Word, you won't need to adjust leading. If there are any gaps in the vertical frame pieces, set your line spacing to single in the Formatting Palette and/or in Paragraph Spacing, Before and After are set to zero.
3. Place your cursor between the top left and right corner pieces and type the letters/numbers/symbols for the horizontal piece. Do the same between the left and right bottom corners. Now, place your cursor on the right side of the top right corner and hit the Enter key. Type the letter/number/symbol of the vertical piece that you want on the left side of the border, then do the same to the right side, adding spaces as necessary. Continue adding vertical and horizontal pieces until the border is the width and height that you want.

ADORN ORNAMENTS

In keeping with the spirit of the collection, Adorn Ornaments gift the designer with 130 unique ornamental illustrations. From works inspired by nature, to stunning wreaths, embellishments, rules, and iconic wedding symbols, Adorn Ornaments are meant to accompany the scripts, rather than restricting them to a theme. They dance from whimsical to modern to vintage looks, yet stay safely within the range of the spectrum that is appropriate for the style of the scripts.
